

THE GOODWIN LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

422 Main St., Farmington, NH 03835 / 603-755-2944

www.goodwinlibrary.org

Operating Hours: Monday 10-5 / Tuesday 2-7 / Wednesday: CLOSED / Thursday 2-7 / Friday 10-5 / Saturday 10-2 / Sunday: CLOSED

Goodwin Library September Events

The Library will be closed Monday, September 5 for Labor Day

Programs

Tie Dye Party

Friday, September 2 from 1:00-3:00

Join us for a tie dye party! You bring the shirt, we'll provide the dye!

Craft & Chat

Tuesday, September 6 at 7:00 on Zoom

Join our virtual crafting group! (Previously known as Sit & Stitch) All crafters welcome to join!

Contact Pam at pgroat@goodwinlibrary.org for the Zoom link.

Homeschool Meet & Greet

Friday, September 9 at 1:00

Come meet other local homeschool families! Share resources or ask questions of veteran homeschool parents.

Family Story Time

Saturday, September 10 at 10:30

Drop in for an all ages story time with Miss Donna! This will be Miss Donna's last story time, as she is retiring this month.

Messy Art Night

Tuesday, September 13 at 5:00

Prepare to get spectacularly messy at our fourth annual Messy Art Night! Enjoy sponge bombs, fly swatter painting, slinky painting and more messy activities! Wear clothes that can get messy. (Rain Date September 20)

Trustee Meeting- Thursday, September 15 at 6:00

Come learn about the happenings at the library. Trustee meetings are open to the public. We are looking for members to join the Library Board of Trustees. If interested attend the next trustee meeting.

Butternut Farm Apple Picking Field Trip

Friday, September 16 at 10:30

Meet us at Butternut Farm for an apple picking field trip! Cost is $5 per child payable to Butternut Farm the day of the trip. Please register in advance for this program on our website, email children@goodwinlibrary.org, or call 755-2944 x3

The Bookies

Tuesday, September 20 at 7:00 on Zoom

This month the Bookies are reading The Night Watchman by Louise Erdrich. We have multiple copies available for check out. Contact Donna at dswett@goodwinlibrary.org for the Zoom link.

S.T.E.A.M. To-Go

Thursday, September 22 all day

Stop by the Children's Room to pick up an Engineering Challenge kit!

S.T.E.A.M. Saturday

Saturday, September 24 from 10:00-12:00

Drop in to explore with Indi, the robot car!

Lego Day

Saturdays, 10:00-1:30

Lego Saturdays are back! Drop in to free build with our Lego collection.

Story Trail

Just in time for back to school read We Don't Eat Our Classmates on the Story Trail! Thank you to Energy Resources Group for sponsoring this story! Thank you to our 2022 Story Sponsors: Farmington Paraeducators, Birdbox Bakery, Chestnut Hill Chimney, PIP Rental, Miss Kathie's Childcare LLC

Thank you to our Permanent Frame Donors: Farmington Conservation Commission, New England Furniture, Farmington Fitness, Chestnut Hill Chimney, Energy Resources Group

Museum Passes

We've added more museum passes! These passes allow patrons free or discounted admission. Call us or stop into the library to reserve a pass. Current passes: Castle in the Clouds, Children's Museum, The Libby Museum, McAuliffe-Shepard Discovery Center, NH Farm Museum, NH State Parks, SEE Science Center, Seacoast Science Center, Strawberry Banke, Squam Lakes Science Center, Woodman Museum, Wright Museum

NEW! American Independence Museum

New Fiction

New Nonfiction

New Young Adult

Staff Picks

Lost Art of Dying by L.S. Dugdale

How do we make death less scary? That's what this book will tell you. In order to die well, you need to live well; read this book to find out how. It covers topics like fear, the body, the spirit, and rituals. I thought this book was going to be a downer and rather boring, but it actually stimulated my mind and got me thinking. Definitely a great read for the living because it takes a lifetime of living well in order to die well. If you're concerned about what happens to your body after you die, this book goes into those details as well as contrasting them against history and what other countries do.

The Young Elites by Marie Lu

If you like X-Men, you'll love The Young Elites. Adelina isn't like everyone else. She survived the blood fever, but sometimes surviving can be worse. Marked by the fever, she is ostracized as an abomination. A malfetto. A curse her father reminds her of daily. One that is hunted by the royal guard. But sometimes curses fight back. Those who survived were also given special abilities. The weak have now become the strong. That is what the royal guard truly fears. When Adelina crosses paths with a group of others like her, will she join their revolution and fight back or will her curse scare even them? You will find you relate to Adelina, and as her story gets deeper, that fact may scare you. A beautifully written story that will have you rooting for Adelina, whichever side she is on.